Trilogy Solutions Celebrates First Year Anniversary

July 14, 2005. Trilogy Solutions, LLC, a Cranbury, New Jersey based IT consulting firm, is pleased to report a highly successful first year of operations. Trilogy Solutions is a Hewlett Packard authorized channel partner, marketing HP hardware and software, and provides consulting services in a wide range of disciplines.

In the year ending June 30, 2005, Trilogy Solutions closed or influenced the sale of over $9 Million in HP business. In addition, the company has developed a pipeline of over $10 Million in pending opportunities.

“I’m pleased that we’ve been able to develop a diverse customer base, with good representation from both large enterprises and mid-sized firms,” said Jeff Liebenthal, Trilogy Solutions President and CEO. “In addition, we’ve been able to leverage the customer relationships developed by Trilogy Leasing over the past several years.”

Trilogy consultants have continued to deliver significant value to clients, solving business problems with a variety of technical solutions, including server consolidation, data replication, and application migration.

Mark Darlington, the Chief Operating Officer, stated “When we started the business, it was very important for us to build a solid foundation for growth. Our revenue stream is building nicely, and with our current infrastructure in place, we see tremendous growth opportunities over the next three to five years.”

Trilogy Solutions has several major announcements planned for this summer.
